WHY EVALUATE?

Foundations

Individual donors

Federal and state grants

Reporting

Hey guys,
did you read this part?

It basically says we need an evaluation to keep getting money.

“Our opinion drawn from experience is that most organizations should budget from 5% to 10% of the organization budget for evaluation costs.”

HOW "TIERS" IS WORKING SO FAR

Benefits:

- ✓ Shared vocabulary facilitates discussions (both inter- and intra-departmental)
- ✓ Tiers make assumptions explicit to enable long-range planning
- ✓ Process emphasizes mutual resource allocation

CHALLENGES

Challenges

- ? Not all programs fit neatly into one tier
- ? What's the right time-scale for revisiting and revising tier assignments
- ? Some programs need remedial work just to get up to a decent Tier 1
- ? It's a LOT of work to do high-quality monitoring, let alone outcomes evaluation

KEY TAKEAWAYS

- 1 Have a systematic process for evaluation management.
- 2 Don't be afraid to stop at whatever tier is most appropriate for the program.
- 3 Remember – the higher the tier, the more resources needed!
