

Lighting the Way for the Next Generation of Evaluators—AEA Affiliates' Showcase

Yao Z. Hill, University of Hawai'i at Mānoa; Beeta Tahmassebi, EnCompass LLC; Margaret Hutzel, Ohio University

Mission and Values	Recruiting and developing student leaders is an organizational tradition and strategic priority	Commitment to recruit and help educate the next generation of professional evaluators in the Washington, DC area	-Student participation is organizational tradition and priority
Membership & Outreach	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Leadership team recruit students in their own classes - Outreach through university instructors - Discounted student conference rate 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Discounted rate for students -Outreach to universities to raise awareness and encourage engagement 	-Discounted membership and conference Rates
Programming & Capacity-building	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Provide evaluation practice by using students to evaluate conference. Members mentor student evaluators throughout the process. - Organize conference sessions and networking sessions for emerging evaluators - Offer student scholarship 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Training opportunities -Networking events -Shared resources -Mentor Minutes -DC SCEP Conference -Evaluation without Borders -New Professional Scholarships 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Student poster sessions at conference -Free training opportunities
Administration & Leadership	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Welcome students to serve on the conference planning committee and serve in the leadership role 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> -Encourage young and emerging evaluators to get involved in leadership positions on the board 	-A student evaluator is recruited every two years to serve on the OPEG board