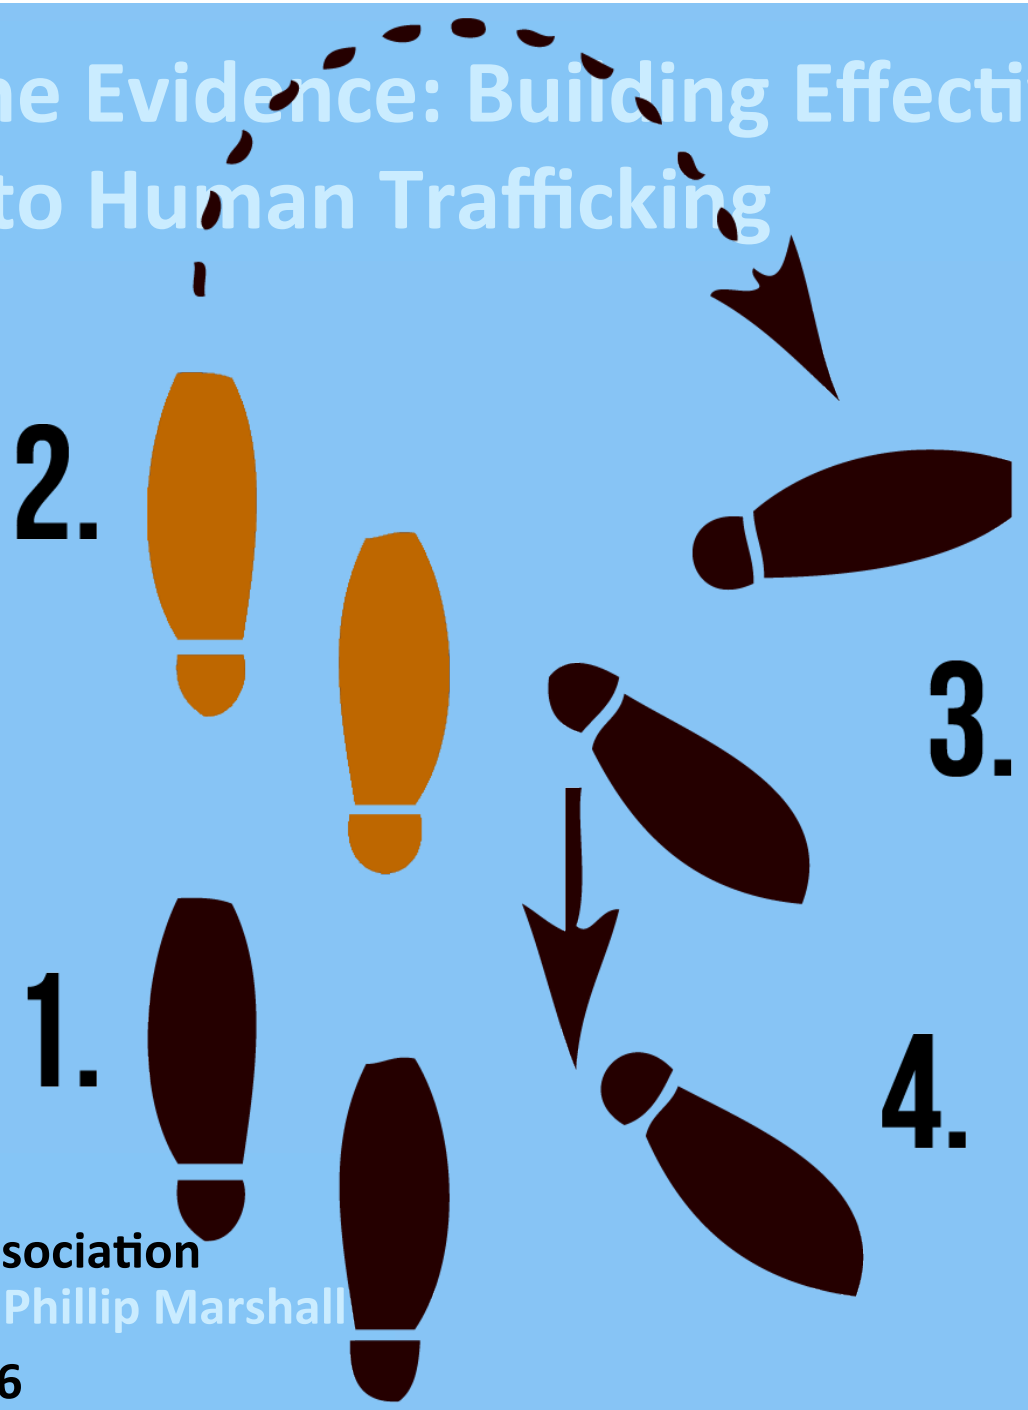
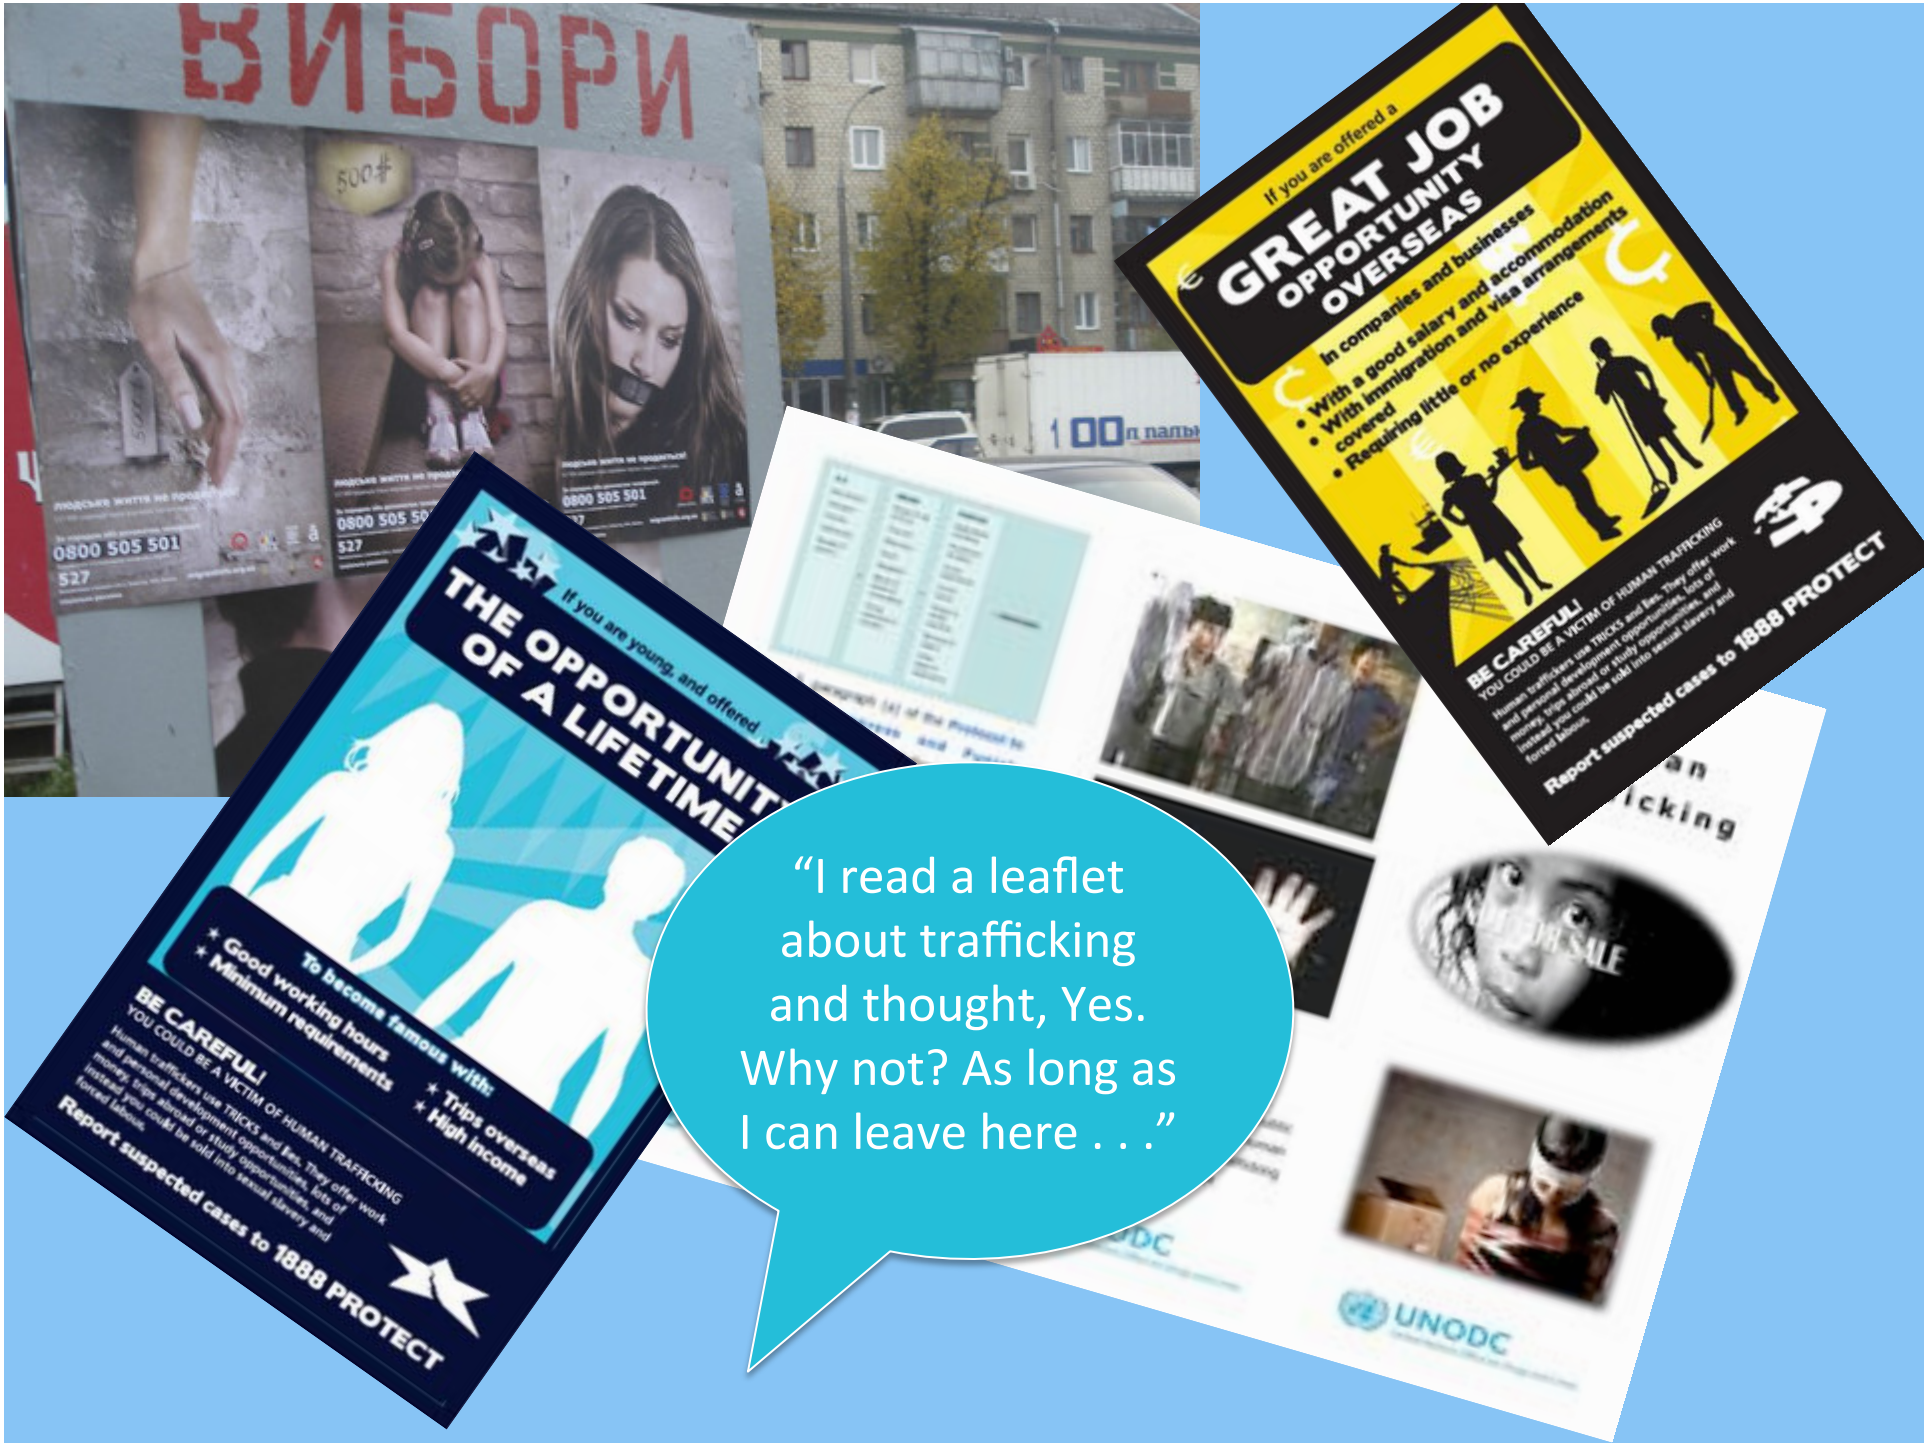
Pivoting Toward the Evidence: Building Effective Global Responses to Human Trafficking



American Evaluation Association

Jacqueline Berman, Ph.D. and Phillip Marshall

29 October 2016



ВИБОРИ
0800 505 501
527
If you are offered a
GREAT JOB
OPPORTUNITY OVERSEAS
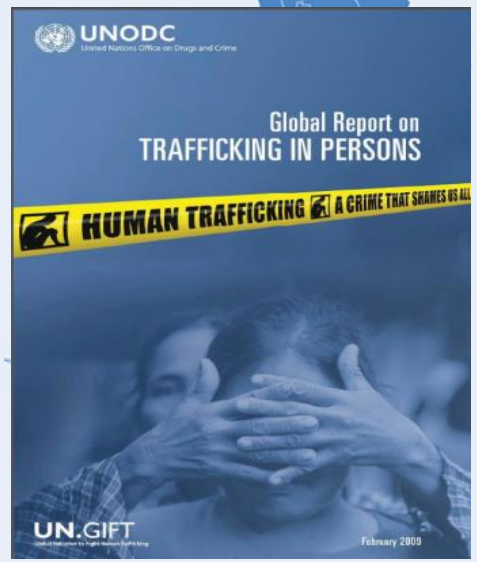
In companies and businesses
• With a good salary and accommodation
• With immigration and visa arrangements covered
• Requiring little or no experience
BE CAREFUL!
YOU COULD BE A VICTIM OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING
Report suspected cases to 1888 PROTECT
If you are young, and offered
THE OPPORTUNITY
OF A LIFETIME
To become famous with:
+ Good working hours
+ Minimum requirements
+ Trips overseas
+ High income
BE CAREFUL!
YOU COULD BE A VICTIM OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING
Report suspected cases to 1888 PROTECT
UNODC
“I read a leaflet about trafficking and thought, Yes. Why not? As long as I can leave here . . .”

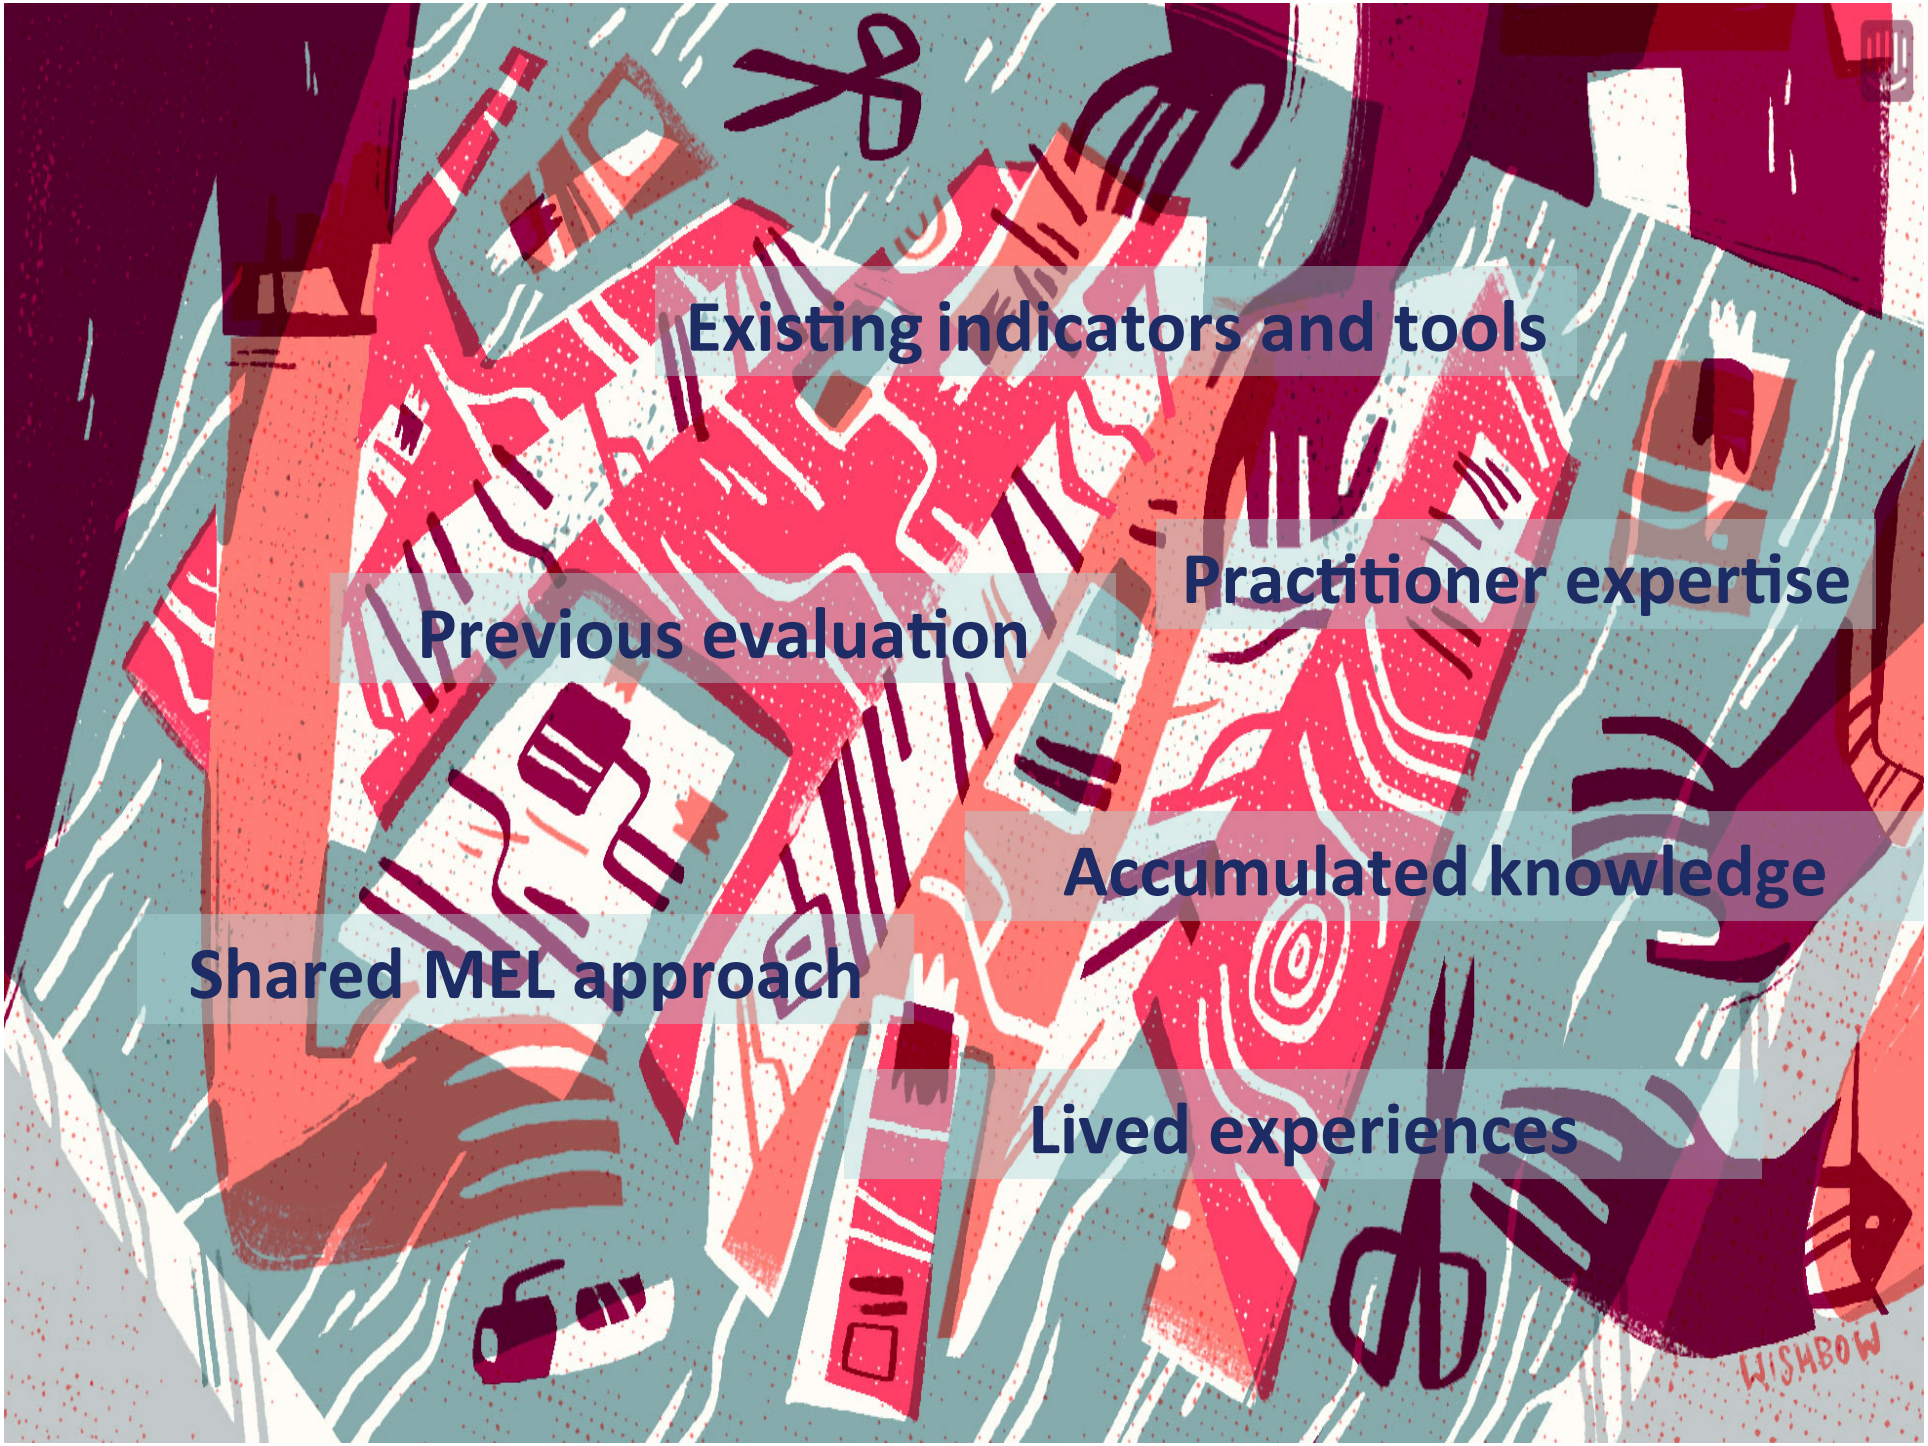
Monitoring and evaluation should never be an afterthought in trafficking programmes; they are an integral part of the successful implementation of anti-trafficking programmes and activities (UNODC, 2008)

UN Inter-Agency Coordination Group Against Trafficking in Persons

UNODC
UN WOMEN
DPKO
ICAO
ICPO-Interpol
ILO
IOM
OHCHR



UNICRI
UNICEF
UNHCR
UNFPA
UNESCO
UNDP
UNAIDS
The World Bank



Existing indicators and tools
Practitioner expertise
Previous evaluation
Accumulated knowledge
Shared MEL approach
Lived experiences
WISHBOW

SPEED LIMIT
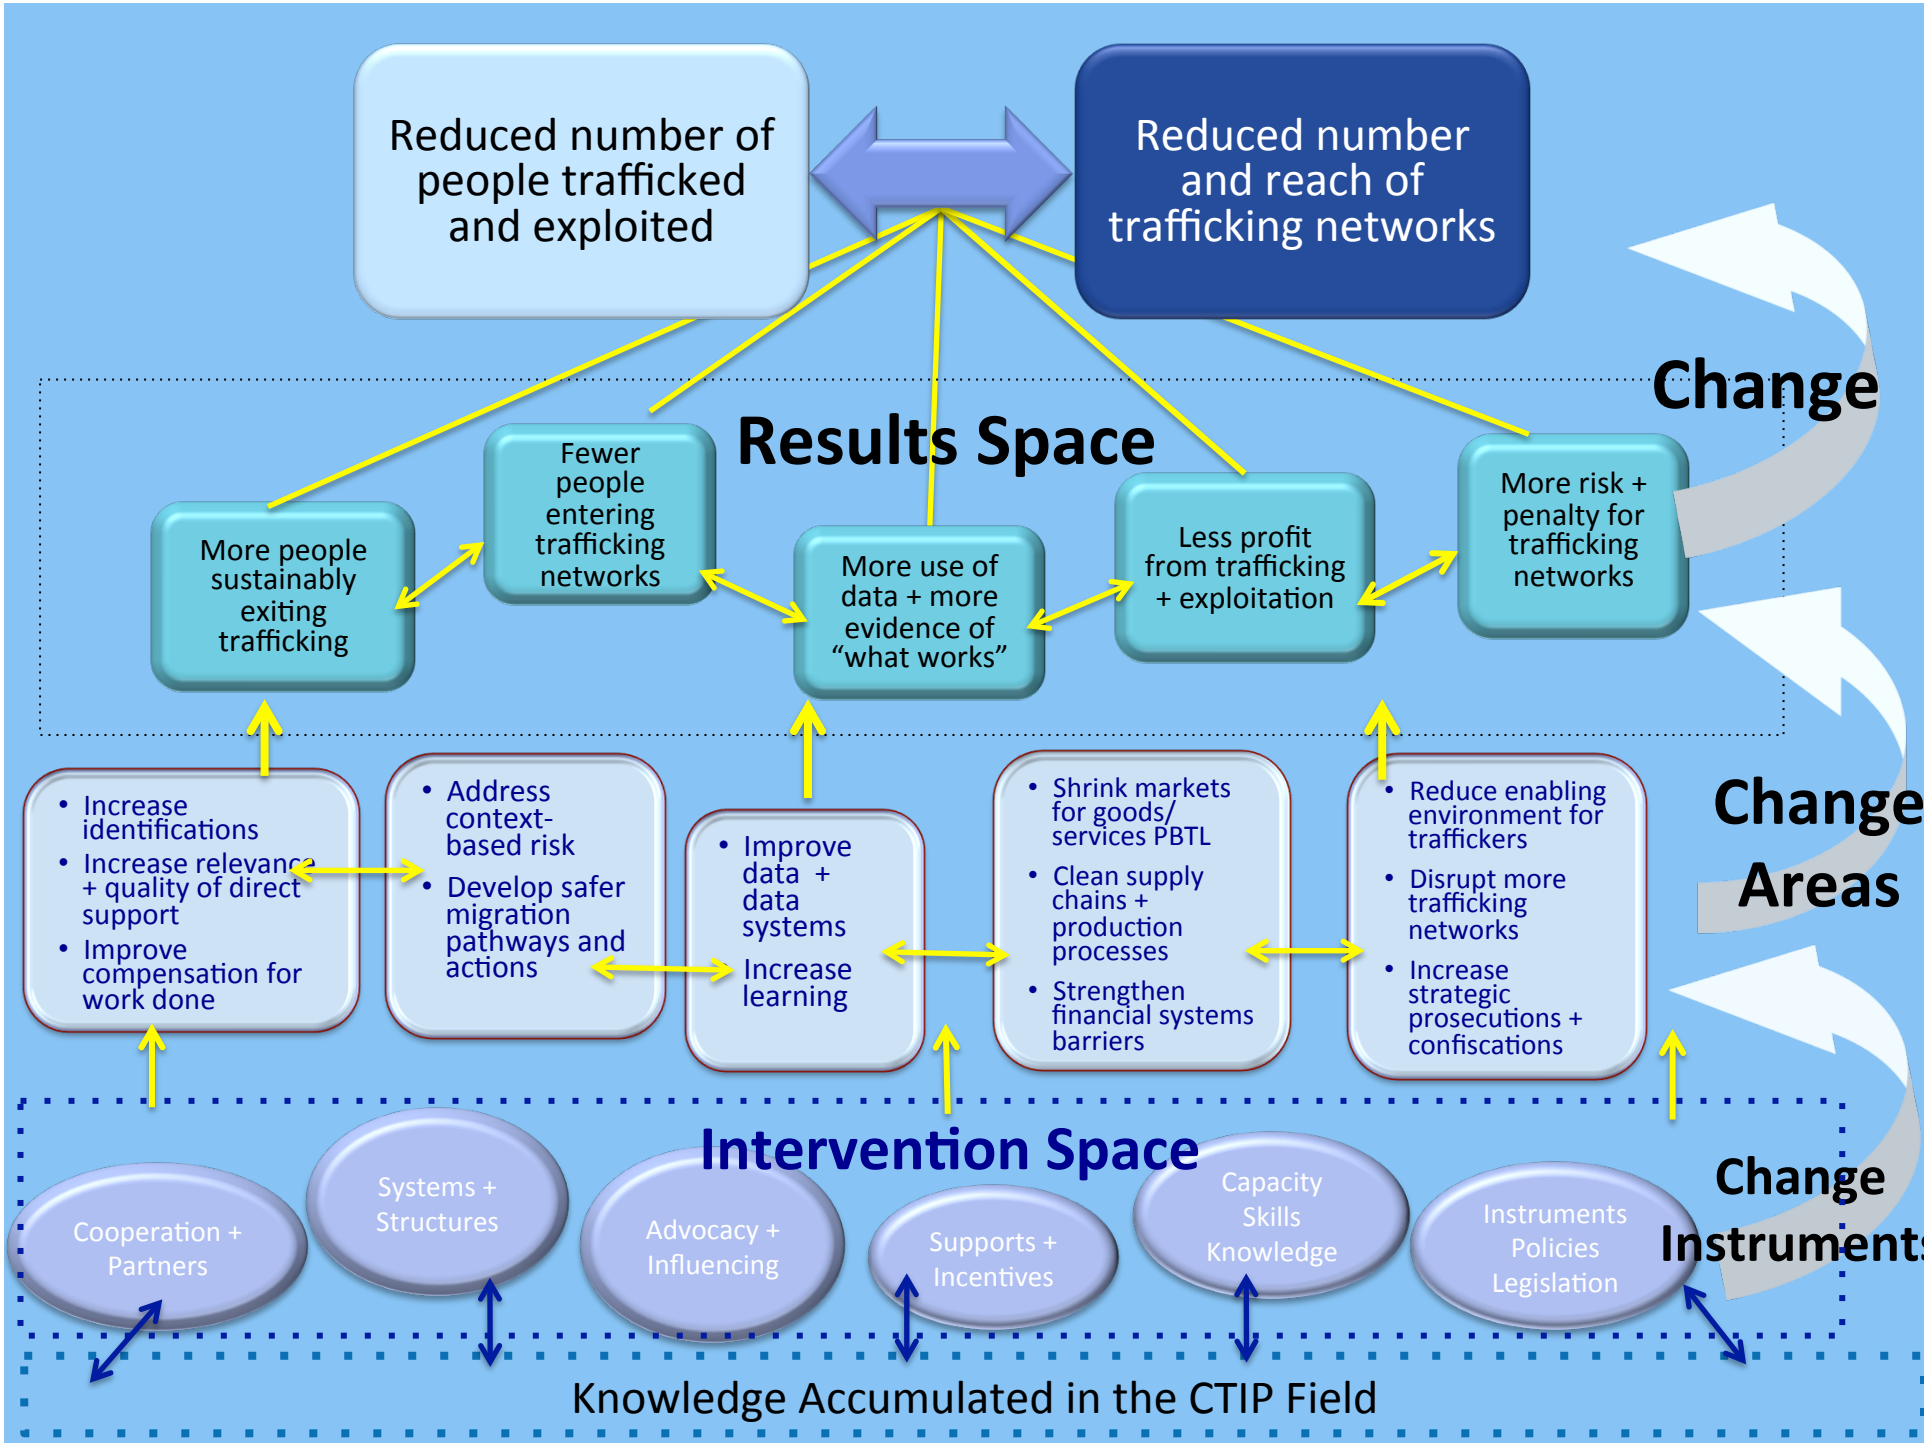
25

Adapted from Rangarajan et al. 2011



Reduced number of people trafficked and exploited
Reduced number and reach of trafficking networks
Change
Results Space
More people sustainably exiting trafficking
Fewer people entering trafficking networks
More use of data + more evidence of "what works"
Less profit from trafficking + exploitation
More risk + penalty for trafficking networks
Change Areas
• Increase identifications
• Increase relevance + quality of direct support
• Improve compensation for work done
• Address context-based risk
• Develop safer migration pathways and actions
• Improve data + data systems
Increase learning
• Shrink markets for goods/ services PBTL
• Clean supply chains + production processes
• Strengthen financial systems barriers
• Reduce enabling environment for traffickers
• Disrupt more trafficking networks
• Increase strategic prosecutions + confiscations
Intervention Space
Change Instruments
Cooperation + Partners
Systems + Structures
Advocacy + Influencing
Supports + Incentives
Capacity Skills Knowledge
Instruments Policies Legislation
Knowledge Accumulated in the CTIP Field

Next Steps . . .

. . .toward
building a CTIP
evidence base